

WOMEN: GET THE SKILLS THAT PAY THE BILLS!

Prepare for a career in the building trades!

FREE Training Program FREE Nontraditional Employment for Women (NEW) Program

Earn while you learn in an apprenticeship.

Apply now!

Call:

Doreen,
Training Coordinator,
CT Permanent
Commission on the Status of Women

(860) 240-8300

pcsw@po.state.ct.us

What is the goal of the NEW Program?

To train and place women in apprenticeships or nontraditional employment that will allow them to earn higher wages and support themselves and their families.

Pre Apprenticeship Training Program:

For the building/construction trades/exploratory
(Ironworker, Electrical, Plumbing, Sprinkler-fitting, & HVAC, Laborer, Painting, Operating Engineer, Carpentry, etc.)

- blueprint reading
- OSHA safety
- employability skills
- occupational math
- hands-on experience
- field trips to apprenticeship training facilities

Where? Ironworkers Local #15,
Veeder Place, Hartford

When? For 11 weeks
Mid February through mid May 2005
Mon., Tues., Wed., from 5:30-8:30 p.m.

What are the requirements?

- High School diploma or a GED
- Valid Driver's License
- Dependable transportation
- Motivated to work in the building trades
- Attend scheduled classes
- Hartford Resident

What are the benefits of the NEW Program?

- Case management
- Job Search training and assistance
- Stipend
- On-going support – group meetings and mentors

"Incredible opportunity!" – a former participant
"These women truly come prepared." – an employer

This program is funded by grants from the CT Department of Labor and Capital Workforce Partners, Office for Workforce Competitiveness, Hartford Construction Jobs Initiative and is conducted by the Connecticut Permanent Commission on the Status of Women.